

On Friday 5th December, 60 of our Year 7 students took part in Merry Mathsmas, an interactive Zoom workshop led by mathematician Zoe Griffiths. Alongside a range of engaging puzzles, students explored the fold-and-cut theory-discovering how, with just one cut, they could create all sorts of surprising shapes from a single sheet of paper. It was a fun and thoughtful session that gave students plenty to enjoy and talk about.

