

On Thursday 13th November, the Art department took 52 year 10 GCSE pupils to the National Portrait Gallery in London. The trip coincides with their current project of exploring portraits and a wonderful opportunity to experience paintings in real life.

The pupils completed a treasure hunt of art work across the 3 floors of the gallery - ranging from the historical to the more contemporary. In addition, they chose an art work to respond to, answering analytical questions and drawing visual responses.

A wonderful trip, with first-hand experience to bring back to the classroom. Well done year 10!
